MISSION

The mission of Woodland Joint Unified School District is to prepare and empower all students for a future of endless possibilities.

WJUSD Multi-Tiered Support Systems (MTSS) mission is to:

- Address the needs of ALL students
- Align the entire system of initiatives, supports, and resources
- Implement continuous improvement processes at all levels of the system

VISION

Excellence in Student Achievement

Excellence in Communication

Excellence in Facilities and Opportunities

To provide Multi-Tiered Support Systems (MTSS) utilizing:

- High-quality, differentiated classroom instruction.
- Systemic and sustainable change.
- Integrated data system.
- Positive behavioral support.

SECTION 1: DEFINITION OF MULTI-TIERED SUPPORT SYSTEMS (MTSS)

In WJUSD, MTSS is an integrated, comprehensive framework that focuses on CCSS, core instruction, differentiated learning, student-centered learning, individualized student needs, and the alignment of systems necessary for all students' academic, behavioral, and social success.

Shared Tenants:

- Shared Leadership
- Data-Based Problem Solving and Decision Making
- Layered Continuum of Supports
- Evidence Based Instruction, Intervention, and Assessment Practices
- Universal Screening and Progress Monitoring
- Family, School, and Community Partnership/Engagement

District Problem-Solving process:

“Schools that are safe, effective, and violence free are not created by accident. They are environments where considerable effort has been made to build and maintain supportive school cultures. Part of this effort consists of evaluating and monitoring the types of behaviors students are exhibiting. Office Referrals are used by schools throughout the nation as one method for managing and monitoring disruptive student behavior. Referrals are more than an index of student behavior; they are an index of the consistency and quality of the school’s discipline system.” (2005, Sprague & Golly. Best Behavior: Building Positive Behavior Support in Schools. Sopris West).

It is important to have a process for reviewing data monthly in order to proactively address concerns before they become a problem. By reviewing and sharing data it allows the team to address areas of concern, but more importantly to celebrate areas of success. It is recommended that each level team have a facilitator who leads the team through the review, a recorder to document the issues/problem and solution, as well as data analysis.

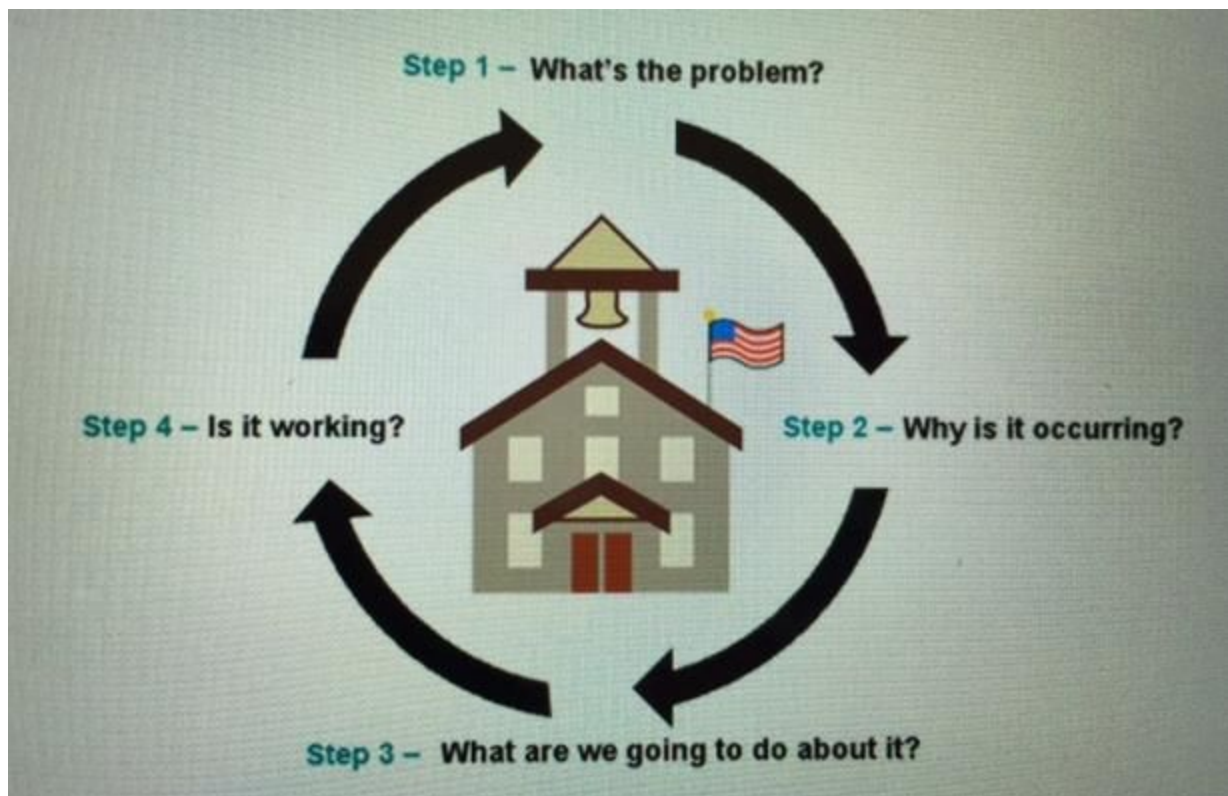

The 4-step problem-solving process involves:

Step 1: Problem Identification: Define, in objective and measurable terms, the goal(s) to be attained. Identify if there is there a gap between the grade level expectations and the student's performance.

Step 2: Problem Analysis: Identify possible reasons why the desired goal(s) is not being attained.

Step 3: Instructional/Intervention Plan: Develop and implement a well-supported plan involving evidence-based strategies to attain the goal(s) (based on data that verified the reasons identified in Step 2).

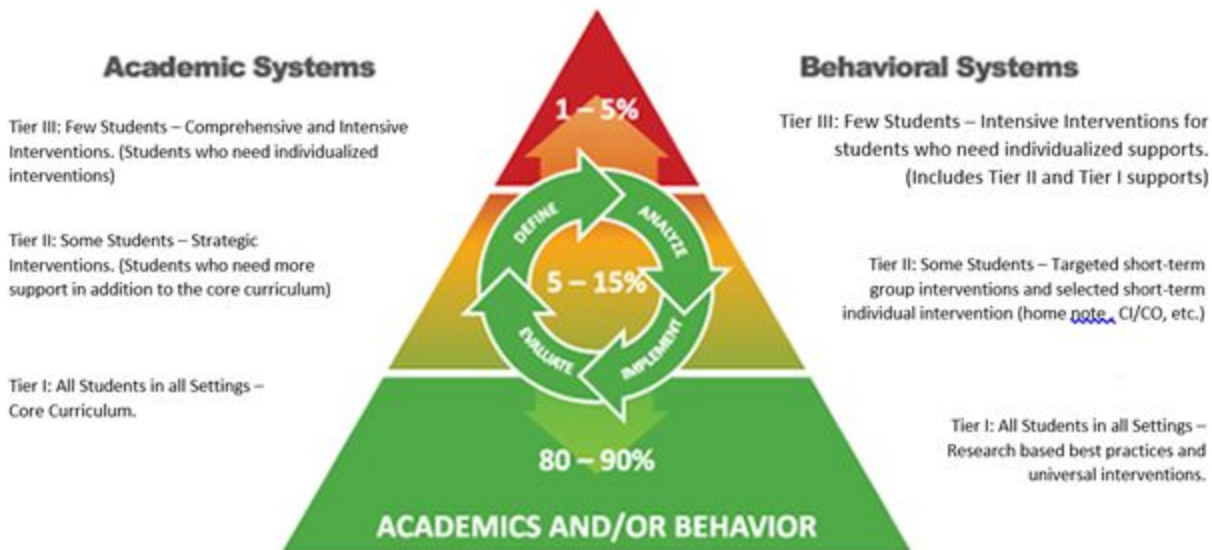

Step 4: Review of Effectiveness: Evaluate the effectiveness of the plan in relation to stated goals.

Three-Tiered Model of Intervention Systems

Student Support Flow Chart - Multiple Tiered Systems of Support

Tiered Team Roles and Responsibilities

Defining Team Structures:

	Name	Lead	Who	When
Level 1	Student Collaboration Team (SCT)	Department or Grade-Level Chair	All teachers within department or grade-level	At least twice a month
Level 2	Site Leadership Team (SLT)	Principal or RTI	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Principal ○ Vice Principal ○ RTI Specialist ○ 504/SST Coordinator ○ Department or Grade-Level Chair May Include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ School Psychologist ○ PBIS Coach ○ Counselor ○ EL Specialist 	Monthly
Level 3	MTSS Academy	Assistant Superintendent of Educational Services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Principals ○ Site/SLT Staff Applicable to Agenda ○ District Personnel as needed 	Monthly

Purpose/Responsibilities of Each Team

Level 1 Team - Student Collaboration Teams (SCT)

Purpose 1: Receive and interpret data information from SLT (TFI, Discipline, Grades etc.) and identify academic and SEL needs strengths and barriers.

Teachers discuss and create action items to present to the SLT. Which may include revising schedules to provide more time for core or intervention, selecting a more appropriate intervention model to meet the needs of students, changing interventionists, increasing professional development or support for interventionists, strengthening the core curriculum.

Purpose 2: Identify academic and behavioral needs and strengths and barriers by using informal classroom observation, test scores, etc. Teachers will bring concerns to the team and discuss best practices. They will try a new intervention, monitor the progress, and report back to the group.

Purpose 3: Monitor effective proactive classroom management skills and good first instruction of guaranteed viable curriculum.

Level 2 Team - Site Leadership Teams (SLT)

Purpose 1: Provide support for staff who implement Tier 2 and Tier 3 Interventions

Purpose 2: Receive student information from SCT and determine interventions and supports for teachers and students.

Purpose 3: Monitoring the process, interventions and fidelity of Tier 2 and Tier 3

Purpose 4: Review progress monitoring data for students in tiers 2 and 3.

Purpose 5: Communicate information about problems and successes to the MTSS Academy.

Purpose 6: Receive information from the MTSS Academy and create action goals based on the data.

Level 3 Team - MTSS Academy

Purpose 1: Receive information from SLTs.

Purpose 2: Responsible for ensuring that the SCTs and the SLTs are operating smoothly within their purpose.

Purpose 3: Investing time and analyzing data to make system level decisions.

Purpose 4: They train, lead and provide guidance for the SLTs.

Consideration for Special Needs Students:

Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) is a systemic, continuous improvement framework in which data-based problem-solving and decision making is practiced across all levels of the educational system for supporting students. The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA 2004), supports implementation of a Multi-Tiered System of Supports because it has proven to be effective in accelerating learning for all students, including students with disabilities. When the MTSS framework is implemented with fidelity, students' educational needs are more intentionally addressed by designing, developing, and delivering needed, appropriate supports. How students with disabilities' needs are addressed should be documented in an Individualized Education Program (IEP).

Considerations for ELs

Expertise/Knowledge of Team and Informed Parent Participation

There are various team members that are involved as part of the RtI, the review of special education evaluation referrals, the evaluation process, and determination of special education eligibility. It is important that team members involved with CLD students have expertise relevant to cultural and linguistic differences. Most commonly, states recommend that an ELL teacher be part of the teams and that team members have training in CLD issues. Team members also need to recognize the complex relationship between developing language proficiency in the second language, literacy development in both languages, and acquiring culturally bound knowledge (e.g., learning the names of the states or capitals; national holidays; vocabulary words, particularly those that are idiomatic and colloquial in meaning and usage; or humor) (Genesee, Lindholm-Leary, Saunders, & Christian, 2005). There is a need for fully integrate processes that require professionals to work together and use their expertise to provide appropriate services to CLD students in a trans disciplinary manner. When documents encourage communication and collaboration across disciplines and reference other documents (e.g., a special education document referencing a Title III document) and there is inclusive professional development to address the educational needs of all students, teams are more likely to be aware of and incorporate each other's areas of expertise.

Finally, it is important that parents of students who are CLD provide consent to participate and be provided with meaningful opportunities to be involved in the team processes, and be able to contribute important information about their children and family needs, values, and culture.

The following questions help guide teams regarding inclusion of knowledgeable participants, particularly parents of CLD students and including ELLs (as age appropriate) and other critical considerations:

- Does the school data-informed problem-solving team have all stakeholders involved, including the general education and English Language Development (ELD) teachers?
- How many years has the student been in the USA?
- Has student received high quality ELD instruction?
- Take English language development(ELD) level into account
- Compare to like peers(ELD level as well as years in US) not English Only students
- Have appropriate and research based ELD interventions been provided to match students ELD level
- Did the student receive “best first instruction” during Tier 1
- Consider L1 instruction as intervention
- Apply culturally responsive practices in terms of assessments, curriculum
- Was parent involvement appropriate?
- Is there a cultural liaison that can link the school and community contexts and parental rights for the parents?
- Is the family informed of the student receiving preventive, tiered intervention in addition to ELD services as part of the school’s RTI/multi-tier system of supports (MTSS) model?
- Are the parents involved in the process, problem solving, and monitoring of the educational plan’s (instruction and intervention) efficacy and response before the student is referred for special education evaluation?
- Is the parent’s consent to a special education evaluation based on an informed understanding of the process and, when necessary, with the support of the cultural liaison, cultural navigator, or translator?
- When appropriate, are parents provided with the opportunity to report on surveys (adaptive, ecological, etc.) with the support of a cultural liaison, cultural navigator, or translator?

- Have the student's parents/guardians participated in the eligibility determination as partners and do they understand how the child will continue to receive the tiered, ELD and specially designed instruction if eligible for special education services?

SECTION 2: THE FOUNDATION OF SUPPORT – TIER 1

Behavior

Positive Behavioral Intervention and Support (PBIS) is an evidence based structure that focuses on system wide prevention of student misconduct. Evidence has shown the following needs to be considered for developing and implementing a sustainable PBIS system within a school site and district:

- Administrator’s Leadership
- A PBIS Team that represents all populations, including parent and community
- Defined Expectations by context of the school
- Expectation taught and reviewed on a regular base
- Acknowledgement System that is well defined and easy to use to honor students who demonstrate the expectation
- Correction System to support students with meeting the expectation
- Data System to capture and produce useful behavior reports

Expectations

It is an expectation of Woodland Joint Unified School District that all teachers, elementary, middle school and high school, teach the: 1) School-wide (universal) Expectations defined by common area locations on campus, 2) Social-emotional learning skills (SEL) that include social skills, and other areas of character education in order to teach, build, and reinforce pro-social behaviors using PBIS framework.

School-wide (Universal) Expectations

Each school site has developed 3-5 school wide expectations targeting prosocial behaviors that encompass the unique needs of their school sites. The following are examples from WJUSD school sites:

- Responsible
- Respectful
- Professional
- Advocating

Teaching Expectations

Expectations should be taught in the same manner which academic skills are taught. Behavior core instruction is provided by classroom teachers at a regularly scheduled, neutral time. The teaching of expectations and social skills continues throughout the entire school year. Each school site will develop a schedule for teaching and practicing expectations and social skills that will best meet the needs of the students at individual school sites.

Acknowledging and Correcting Expectations

Once expectations and social skills have been taught, acknowledgement and correction (enforcement) should continue throughout the remainder of the day, week, and year by all staff. Depending on the setting (common area, classroom, office, etc.) and level of need, acknowledgement and correction will sound somewhat different. Rule of thumb: the more at-risk a school, a group or an individual student is for demonstrating prosocial behaviors, the more explicit the level of acknowledgement/correction must become.

Social-Emotional Learning

Social emotional learning (SEL) teaches the skills we all need to handle ourselves, our relationships, and our work, effectively and ethically. SEL is an evidence based practice. SEL, when done intentionally and systematically, can explain an 8% increase in standardized testing as well as a 12% decrease in problematic behavior among youth in the school setting (Durlak, Weissberg, Dymnicki, Taylor, & Schellinger, 2011).

The Collaborative for Academic, Social and Emotional Learning (CASEL) defines the core competencies supporting positive social-emotional behaviors as: self-management, self-awareness, social awareness, relationship skills, and responsible decision making.

- Self-awareness: The ability to accurately recognize one's emotions and thoughts and their influence on behavior. This includes accurately assessing one's strengths and limitations and possessing a well-grounded sense of confidence and optimism.
- Self-management: The ability to regulate one's emotions, thoughts, and behaviors effectively in different situations. This includes managing stress, controlling impulses, motivating oneself, and setting and working toward achieving personal and academic goals.

- Social awareness: The ability to take the perspective of and empathize with others from diverse backgrounds and cultures, to understand social and ethical norms for behavior, and to recognize family, school, and community resources and supports.
- Relationship skills: The ability to establish and maintain healthy and rewarding relationships with diverse individuals and groups. This includes communicating clearly, listening actively, cooperating, resisting inappropriate social pressure, negotiating conflict constructively, and seeking and offering help when needed.
- Responsible decision making: The ability to make constructive and respectful choices about personal behavior and social interactions based on consideration of ethical standards, safety concerns, social norms, the realistic evaluation of consequences of various actions, and the well-being of self and others.

SEL as a school-wide approach can be brought to students in the classroom either by using a planned supplemental curriculum (such as Second Step), or educators may choose to “un-pack” the CCSS currently being delivered to the students thereby teaching them the social skills implied within the standard.

Restorative Interventions

Restorative justice in schools has emerged as an alternative discipline model to reduce exclusionary practices, as well as decrease police and juvenile justice involvement. Restorative justice is not a singular program, rather a philosophy and practice based on a core set of principles that emphasizes healing over punishment, inclusion over exclusion, and individual accountability with a high level of community support. Restorative practices aim to create a supportive community & reintegrate students who have misbehaved as productive members of the school community, rather than excluding them and risking further separation, negative attitudes towards school, and discontinuation of academic learning.

Restorative practices include a variety of proactive and reactive processes that can be implemented school-wide, in the classroom and within the disciplinary structure. There are three fundamental underpinnings:

Engaging Community - Restorative practices rely on building a web of relationships throughout the school community, including administrators, teachers, staff, school resource officers, students, family, and community organizations. This community supports students in making responsible decisions and holds them accountable for misbehaviors. Community engagement could mean building community in the classroom through the circle process, participation of a parent in a restorative process or providing community service opportunities.

Understanding the Impact and Repairing the Harm - Restorative practices in schools focus on understanding the collective impact and repairing the harm associated with misbehaviors, establishing responsibility and meaningful accountability, and preventing future misbehaviors. Each process incorporates the following guiding questions:

- What happened?
- What were you thinking of at the time?
- What have you thought about since?
- Who has been affected by what you have done? In what way?
- What do you think you need to do to make thing right? How can other help you?

Giving Voice - Restorative practices focus on giving voice to each member of the community, whether through community building processes or responding to misbehaviors, where those involved and those impacted are empowered to make decisions about how to make things right and prevent future harm.

Site Specific School-Wide Acknowledgement

Each school has developed site specific school-wide acknowledgment systems for reinforcing expectations and pro-social behaviors. Examples of school-wide systems include:

- Wildcat Way tickets

Academic

Good first instruction is grounded in the same principles as PBIS of high-quality, differentiated classroom instruction. All students receive high-quality, standards-based (with a focus on state standards), culturally-and linguistically-relevant instruction in their general education classroom settings by highly qualified teachers, who have high academic and behavioral expectations, attained through differentiated learning instructional strategies in, such as Universal Design for Learning.

Each school will work collaboratively with their SCT teams to identify and implement specific good first instruction strategies.

SECTION 3: TARGETED SUPPORTS: TIER 2

INTERVENTIONS

Behavior

Break Card

Why should I do it:

- To provide students with a cool down time
- To allow students time away from a stressful or potentially stressful situation
- It can help avoid a power struggle between you and the student
- Helps students with poor attention and focus
- Gives kids that need sensory input
- Gives fidgety kids and those who have trouble sitting still for periods an opportunity to get up and move

When should I do it:

- When a student gets off task and is beginning to be disruptive but not problematic
- When student is beginning to be argumentative or confrontational
- When a student is refusing to follow a directive
- When a student is excessively fidgety or moving around a lot in their seats
- When a student has significant ADD/ADHD
- When a student needs the sensory input
- When a student seems to have lost focus and attention
- When a student needs help redirecting or refocusing
- When a student seems sleepy, bored, tired, etc
- When a student seems overwhelmed, anxious, or overly frustrated
- When a student is having trouble following along, following directives/directions, etc
- When a student seems to need a break from the current activity or student they are working with
- When a student seems to be over-emotional, upset, etc

How do I do it:

- Make a laminated card with the word “BREAK” on it and make the card accessible to the student (ex. within arms reach)
- If appropriate provide student with hand held timer setting the timer for no longer than five minutes
- Identify a safe and non-disruptive area to go
- Student returns when timer goes off
- Thank the student for leaving and returning so cooperatively. Give encouragement to student upon return.
- Explain the process to the student and have them practice it before implementation. The student must be able to do the process in a role play before you require them to do it in real time.
- Either the student or teacher may initiate a break, though it is best when the students can identify the need for and take breaks appropriately
- If the students abuses the break card intervention, set limits on the frequency of use to deter this

Recommendations:

- Let the student create the look of the break card
- Only use the break card to replace extremely disruptive behaviors that the student uses to escape tasks. The break card will be a slight disruption, but it will be less of a disruption than the interfering behavior.
- A long term goal may be to teach the student to request and receive help.

Break Card Example:

Behavior Contract

Why should I do it:

- Provides students with more one on one help, support, and intervention
- Holds students accountable
- Provides structure, routine, consistency, and organization
- Promotes self-responsibility
- Improves students' grades and accountability
- Improves student buy-in
- Increases student motivation and effort
- Improves school/home communication

When should I do it:

- When students exhibit persistent behavior problems
- When students are very unorganized
- When students consistently fail to compete daily class/school requirements (work, behavior expectations, peer interactions, lunch, etc)
- When students exhibit persistent emotional difficulties, like frustration, anxiety, tantrums, etc.

How do I do it:

- Clearly defined expectations for positive behavior (include student in this process)
 - List of behaviors to increase
 - Be as specific and clear as possible to prevent disagreement
 - Try and choose behaviors that are easy to observe and verify
 - Possible list of behaviors to decrease (best practice is to focus on behaviors to increase)
 - Sometimes we can list a behavior to increase positively that will also decrease an interfering behavior, this is preferred. For example, increasing the positive behavior of the student being in his/her seat would also simultaneously decrease the behavior of being out of their seat.
- Clearly defined conditions to which the student will receive reinforcement (include student in this process)
 - When will they earn a token towards reinforcer?
 - At the end of period?
 - After caught engaging in positive behavior?
 - When does student earn reinforcer?
 - Start the student at a level of expectation that they will likely be successful.
 - After a period of success, increase the expectation.
 - What is the reinforcer? Add picture?
- Day broken down into logical periods of time for age/grade (math, lunch, recess, ELA, etc.)
 - Think creatively about how to divide the day for the student, allow multiple sections so that the student can “turn his/her day around” if they happen to have a rough period.
- Area for signatures of student, teacher, parent or any other stakeholder.
- Send a copy of the chart or form home for the parent to sign and review with the student, either daily or weekly
- Plan to specifically teach the positive behavior expected

- What teaching strategies needed to have student engage in contract process?
- What materials are needed?
 - Contract (include student in this process to customize contract)
 - Reinforcers
 - Structure/supports?
- Include a plan to fade this support
 - Our goal is to always have the student functioning appropriately and successfully within the classroom environment. With the team, create a plan to make incremental steps toward increasing the expectations for reinforcement to occur and then building that reinforcement into the classroom environment so that the behavior contract is no longer needed.
 - A possible example: After 2 weeks of student getting at least 5 out of 7 points each day and earning reinforcement, increase the contingency for reinforcement to 6 out of 7 points. This moves the student 1 step closer to more consistent positive behavior using the data from the contract to prove he/she is ready.
 - It is possible that to require more effort from the student may also require a more powerful reinforcer. It is always important to allow the student an opportunity to choose a new reinforcer from time-to-time to make sure the student doesn't lose interest in the process.
- Graduate the student from the Behavior contract when the team agrees he/she is ready.
 - Make a big deal about this, lots of praise, include parents, etc!

Daily Behavior Form

Why should I do it:

- Provides students with more one on one help, support, and intervention
- Holds students accountable on a daily basis
- Provides structure, routine, consistency, and organization
- Promotes self responsibility
- Improves students' grades and accountability
- Improves student buy-in
- Increases student motivation and effort
- Improves school/home communication

When should I do it:

- When students exhibit persistent behavior problems
- When students are very unorganized

- When students consistently fail to complete daily class/school requirements
- When students exhibit persistent emotional difficulties, like frustration, anxiety, etc.

How do I do it:

- Utilize a daily behavior form, chart, or report card that is easy to understand (typically a rating scale or +/- in each category).
- Decide on 3-4 positive behaviors that you want the student to demonstrate and put these on the chart. Consider using the school expectations that the student needs to work on. If appropriate, get student input on behaviors to target.
- Explain the procedure to the student.
- Rate the student for each period, hour, etc on the targeted behaviors listed on the form.
- Send a copy of the chart or form home for the parent to sign and review with the student, either daily or weekly.
- Depending on the form you use, you may give the student a new form each day or the form may have space to rate the student for the week or month, etc. Daily form may be best in order to help student and staff see that each day is a fresh start.
- Review the student's daily behavior and focus on what to change or do differently the next day, etc.
- Include a plan to fade this support
 - Our goal is to always have the student functioning appropriately and successfully within the classroom environment. With the team, create a plan to make incremental steps toward increasing the expectations for reinforcement to occur and then building that reinforcement into the classroom environment so that the behavior contract is no longer needed.
 - A possible example: After 2 weeks of student getting at least 5 out of 7 points each day and earning reinforcement, increase the contingency for reinforcement to 6 out of 7 points. This moves the student 1 step closer to more consistent positive behavior using the data from the contract to prove he/she is ready.
 - It is possible that to require more effort from the student may also require a more powerful reinforcer. It is always important to allow the student an opportunity to choose a new reinforcer from time-to-time to make sure the student doesn't lose interest in the process.

- Graduate the student from the Behavior contract when the team agrees he/she is ready.
- Make a big deal about this, lots of praise, include parents, etc!

Check in/Check Out

Why should I do it:

- Improves student accountability
- Increases structure
- Improves student behavior and academics when other interventions have failed
- Provides feedback and adult support on a daily basis
- Improves and establishes daily home/school communication and collaboration
- Improves student organization, motivation, incentive, and reward
- Helps students to self-monitor and correct
- Internalizes success and accomplishment of goals
- Students get involved and excited about the program, enjoying the structure, support, and incentives of the intervention

- Leads to maintenance free responsible behaviors, habits, and effort

When should I do it:

- When a student has failed to respond to other interventions and general class management techniques and interventions
- When a student is competing little to no work
- When a student is not doing home work
- When a student is not participating, being involved, or taking part in the learning process
- When a student has emotional issues, like anxiety, frustration, etc
- When kids have attention, focus, and impulsivity issues
- When kids have very poor organization
- When a student is exhibiting behavioral problems
- When a student demonstrates low motivation and effort

How do I do it:

- CICO has slight variations from program to program and school to school, but generalized and at its core, this is how to do CICO:
 - A student checks in with a specific adult at the start of the school day. The adult gives the student a point sheet that has the goals the student is working on. The adult speaks briefly with the student, reminding them what they need to focus on or any other things to help the student work toward their goals. The idea is to encourage the student and not say negative comments or blame
 - The student goes through their day with the point sheet, working on their goals and having each teacher check how well they did on each goal on their sheet
 - At the end of the day, the student checks out with the same adult they checked in with. The adult briefly talks with the student, asking them how they feel they did, what they did well on, and what they need to work on. The idea is to encourage the student and not make negative blaming statements.
 - If appropriate, the student then takes their point sheet home to show and discuss with their parent.

- If appropriate, the parent signs and discusses the point sheet and what the student did well on and what they need to work on (The idea is for the parent encourage the student and not say negative or blaming comments)
- If appropriate, the student brings back the signed point sheet the next day.
- The cycle starts all over again every morning.
- The student and their team decide what the overall average point goal is for each week, like 80% of points each week. The weekly average point goals may be used along with a reward system where the student receives a reward at the end of the week for attaining their weekly average point level. Depending on the student, you may need to start rewards for reaching the point goal on a daily basis and work up to a week, so instead of reaching 80% of their points for the week, they only need to reach 80% of their daily points for reward.
- Fade Plan: When the student is checking in and out using the tool independently with their adult mentor, the adult mentor will confer with the teacher and other relevant stakeholders to transfer the tool to the classroom teacher. This process normally takes about 2-3 weeks to transfer to the teacher. Thereafter, the teacher uses the DPR and CI/CO tool in the classroom with minimal intrusiveness. If student is not responding to the DPR or CI/CO supports, refer to the PBIS team or Site leadership team for further behavioral support.

Mentoring

Why should I do it:

- Provides a student with a personal connection and buy-in
- Helps student to feel like someone "has their back"
- Increases student morale
- Improves student motivation
- Source of accountability, encouragement, support, and advocacy
- Helps student to perceive school, teachers, work in a more positive light

When should I do it:

- When students are unsuccessful academically or behaviorally
- When other intervention seem to fail
- When a student is having significant issues getting along with others
- When students exhibit very little motivation and effort or just do not seem to care about work and/or behavior
- When students seem to have little guidance and/or support in the home

- When a student seems suspicious of the school and staff
- For those kids that always seem to get a bad bream and are perpetually in trouble and/or failing
- When a student is frequently suspended and/or is in danger of expulsion
- When a student does not seem to respond to anything else
- When a student does not seem to have any significant connections to learning, academics, behaviors, etc

How do I do it:

- Mentors should be voluntary
- Keep the student with one mentor, don't switch around
- Mentors should not set out to "fix" the student and all the student's issues
- Mentors should be supportive, encouraging, and engaged
- There should be a legitimate bond between the student and the mentor
- Mentors should try to do something fun or engaging with the student, like shooting a basketball, playing cards, or talking about a common topic of interest.
- Mentors should not be tutors or academic instructors.
- Mentors should listen, listen, listen! Use active listening with students
- Mentors should help students to set goals, plans, and solutions
- Mentors only need meet with a student once a week for 15 or so minutes

Academics

The delivery of Tier 2 instruction is focused on skills that pose a barrier to the acceleration of student learning. Tier 2 instruction could be provided in the general education classroom by a supplemental instruction teacher or outside of the general education classroom by a supplemental instruction teacher. Any Tier 2 instruction provided to students must be integrated with Tier 1 instruction, content and performance expectations. Providers of Tier 2 instruction are encouraged to incorporate instructional language and materials of Tier 1.

Each school will work collaboratively with their SCT teams to identify and implement specific good first instruction strategies.

General strategies to consider:

- Before/after school focus groups
- Modified homework
- RTI specialist support
- One on one support
- Modified instruction

SECTION 4: INDIVIDUALIZED SUPPORT: TIER 3

Behavior and Academics

If data shows lack of progress with Tier 2 interventions a Tier 2 conference will be held to identify whether additional Tier 2 interventions are needed or if higher level of support is warranted. Students referred to Tier 3 must have documented supports from Tier 1 and Tier 2 before being referred to Tier 3.

Student Support Teams (SST)

For the Woodland Joint Unified School District (WJUSD), a Student Support Team is an important, student centered collaborative problem-solving model within the school (focuses on intense and in depth individual student focus), after Tier 1 and Tier 2 supports and interventions have been tried and monitored. This is a COLLECTIVE COMMITMENT and we think that all students can learn and all educators want to make a difference. We will work to relentlessly enhance and support student services on each campus; that will include a comprehensive, multifaceted, and integrated continuum of school-community interventions for students in WJUSD.

The SST is a problem solving and coordinating structure that assists students, families and teachers to develop positive solutions for maximizing student potential. It provides an opportunity for school staff, family members, community agencies, and other important people to present their concerns about an individual student, and through discussion and study, to plan a positive course of action, assign responsibilities and monitor results for a student/family.

We believe:

- SSTs should be requested by a site intervention team (or parent) that have previously tried other levels of support and interventions within the Tier 1 and Tier 2 framework prior---is this is a behavior or academic need?
- SSTs should be done before Special Education or 504s are discussed as options
- There is an inherent need for strategic and intentional focus on Tier 1 universal screening and progress monitoring before Tier 2 and Tier 3 referrals are considered

It is recommended that someone be assigned at each site to perform the following roles. Suggested members are in parenthesis.

Student Study Team (SST) Process

Suggested Materials: Cum Folder, SST Referral Form, Parent Letter/Invitation, Teacher/Staff Input Form, Parent Feedback Form, SST Summary

1. Requesting a Student Study Team Meeting
 - a. SST meeting requests are more frequently made by the teacher or counselor, and can be made by the administrator, parent, or sometimes a community partner.
 - b. The SST Request Form includes information regarding specific concerns and previously attempted interventions and accommodations. The SST Request Form also includes known data as listed below. *Parents and teachers/counselors should discuss the concern with each other before requesting the SST.
 - c. The completed SST Request Form is submitted to the administrator and reviewed to determine if appropriate.
2. Reviewing an SST Request
 - a. Completed SST Request Form is submitted to the administrator or their designee.

- b. Forms are reviewed for:
 - i. Completion – are all fields completed?
 - ii. Attempted interventions and parent communication – what has the referring party tried to meet this students need? Has the referring party communicated their concerns to parents?
 - iii. Consistency of presenting concern(s) – is the student struggling in just one subject, or many? Are standardized test scores low in addition to class scores? Are named behavior issues persistent?
 - c. Determination and communication:
 - i. If the request is determined appropriate for SST, the Form is forwarded to the Scheduler for scheduling
 - ii. If the request is determined NOT appropriate for SST, administrator communicates with referring party and provides suggestions/next steps.
3. Scheduling the SST Meeting
- a. Within two business days of receipt, scheduler establishes a meeting date/time/place when all members may participate and be actively involved in the problem solving process.
 - b. Communicate meeting date/time/location to parent(s) via both a phone call home, and the Parent Invitation. Scheduler must document all parent contact attempts in Aeries.
 - i. If not confirmed by parent within two business days, place follow-up phone calls until parent is reached. If parent cannot be reached, Administrator decides whether to move forward.
 - c. Distribute Teacher Input Form to all necessary individuals (middle and high school).
 - d. Reminder to all team members, including parent, one day prior to SST meeting.
4. Preparing for the SST Meeting
- a. Administrator (or designee) collects:
 - i. Copy of SST Request Form
 - ii. Cumulative folder
 - iii. Attendance print-out
 - iv. Class schedule (middle and high school)
 - v. Completed Teacher Input Forms (middle and high school)
 - b. Teacher compiles:

- i. Work samples
 - ii. Relevant assessments
5. Facilitating the SST Meeting
 - a. SST meeting is held to summarize concerns (including data collected above, #2), and to discuss and develop an action plan (RTI) with academic or behavioral interventions.
 - b. Introductions, purpose of the meeting, & signatures on the SST Summary
Discussion of strengths & specific concerns
 - c. Present & discuss data (quantitative & qualitative)
 - d. Develop an action plan (RTI)
 - e. Summarize, make copies for all parties involved, & schedule a follow-up meeting (6-8 weeks, or a relevant time frame)
6. Following Up after a SST Meeting
 - a. Immediately after the SST, a short debrief amongst SST members may be necessary.
 - b. Provide copies of SST summary for those involved in the action plan who were not present at the meeting.

 - d. Team lead to send reminders about the next SST. Reminders/calls can be made by the office staff.
7. Conducting the follow-up SST
 - a. Continue with the same SST process to discuss progress or other alternatives. If progress has been made, a 3rd SST may not be necessary. If no progress, discuss other alternatives for RTI.

Participant Engagement

Parents are an integral part of the SST process and bring a wealth of knowledge about their children that can help when strategizing about support services and interventions. It is important to ensure that the SST process is a positive experience for parents. Many parents may have had unsuccessful meetings with schools and may be hesitant or resistant to participate. It is important to keep these things in mind when talking with parents and encouraging them to participate.

*Parent(s) can include the following: custodial parent, foster parent and legal guardian's

Best Practices for Parent Engagement

- When calling home, use a warm, inviting tone
- Present information about SST meeting to parent(s) in a manner in which they understand
- Assure parents that the SST meeting is not to condemn or “bad talk” their child
- Be flexible with scheduling; accommodate parents
- Let the parent know that they are valuable and an important part of the meeting team
- Parents should ALWAYS be included at SST meetings. Meetings should not take place if they are not available
- Have someone greet family at the front office and walk them to the SST meeting room
- Have translation services if needed
- Be respectful and keep the SST environment friendly
- Engagement is a two way process. Allow parents to share their child(s) strengths, weaknesses and concerns with the group at the beginning of the meeting from their perspective
- Give parents the opportunity to clarify any questions and participate in the implementation of interventions developed by the SST team
- Presentation of teacher’s concerns should be presented in parent friendly language
- Interventions and support strategies should be focused around the improvement of the child’s learning; that is the clear and consistent goal
- Provide parents with a copy of the action plan
- Make sure someone from the team escorts family back to the front office; thank parent(s) for attending
- Follow-up with a phone call home to check in with parents
- Get parent feedback on SST process.
 - How did they feel?
 - Was it a good experience for them?
 - Did the parent(s) feel heard and supported?

Best Practices for Student Engagement

Students are very important part of the SST process and play a significant role in their educational success. Students can become anxious and overwhelmed when sitting in a meeting room full of adults; it can feel like “all eyes” are on them.

- Praise student for attending
- Remind student that all team members are there for them and that each member at the table wants the student to be successful
- Make sure the student is present when team members are discussing their strengths
- At parent/teacher discretion, it may be appropriate to have the student step outside when discussing weaknesses and/or areas of concern. Some students may become emotional and have a negative reaction to the information being presented
- Allow the student to share his/her feelings about how their classroom experience has been
- Allow student to share what works for them when talking about interventions and strategies

Teacher/Staff/Support Services

- If possible, all teachers should be present at SST meetings.
- It shows that they are invested in the students success
- Shows parents that they have respect for them

Language Issues

- Find out what the parent(s) first language is prior to scheduling meeting
- Contact the school site Office Coordinator to help with translating to parent(s) reason for SST meeting
- Contact the school site Office Coordinator and arrange to have translation services provided during the meeting
- Translator should arrive at school site 15 mins prior to meeting
- Translator and school representative should greet family in front office and escort them to the meeting site
- Translation should take place throughout the meeting with frequent breaks to allow parent(s) time to obtain all of the information being presented, provide personal insight and respond to any questions

- Have SST Action Plan translated into parent(s) primary language

SECTION 5: IDENTIFYING STUDENTS FOR TIER 2 SUPPORTS

Multiple methods are used to identify students in need of Tier 2 interventions. No single method is likely to identify all students who may need Tier 2 supports. Students with externalized and/or internalized problem behaviors may be identified for Tier 2 supports. Students may be identified through various methods including: (a) Office Discipline Referrals; (b) a universal screener, (c) requests for support, and (d) other means determined appropriate by school sites (i.e. health/office logs, attendance, buddy teacher logs).

Considerations

It is important to note that students should not receive Tier 2 services unless Tier 1 systems are established with fidelity within the environment in which a student is exhibiting behavior. If Tier 1 is not in place, the focus of intervention should be at the Tier 1 level (i.e. environmental changes, refining reinforcement systems for acknowledging desired behavior, strengthening relationships, strengthening community).

Considerations for Students in Need of Intervention:

The tiers are differentiated by the “intensity” of the services provided. Intensity is defined as the number of minutes and the focus of the instruction/intervention. An increase in the number of minutes of exposure to quality instruction/intervention and/or the narrowing of the focus of instruction would be defined as “more intensive instruction.” Therefore, Tiers 2 and 3 are defined within the context of Tier 1. The number of minutes of instruction and the breadth of that instruction that defines Tier 1 in a school will be the basis for the criteria for Tiers 2 and 3. For instance, if ALL students receive 90 minutes of reading instruction in Tier 1 and that instruction includes phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary and comprehension, then Tier 2 would be defined as additional minutes of quality instruction and/or intervention that focuses on one or more of the five areas of reading, but not all. The “focus” would be in the area of greatest need for the student. If the focus of the intervention is behavior, the process is very much the same, in that, Tier 2 would be defined as the additional intervention needed in addition to what is already provided at Tier 1. For example, the additional behavior intervention needed in Tier 2 might be; CI/CO, buddy classroom, home note, etc. The best practice approach is to consider behavior and academics at the same time, not separately, focusing on the whole-student approach. In general, a four step process will help to define and differentiate the tiers: HOW MUCH additional time will be needed, WHAT will occur during that time, WHO is the most qualified person to deliver the “What” (instructional strategies) and WHERE will that additional instruction occur. Tier 3 will be the most “intensive” instruction the building can offer.

Considerations for Students with Disabilities and Consent for Screenings

Federal regulations require that schools obtain consent for observations, testing, or interviews of a student that may be used to evaluate a student for special education services. As a general rule, if educators are collecting new data for the purpose of determining disability, an assessment plan is necessary as is parent/guardian consent. If educators do not suspect a disability and are reviewing existing data, such as how a student is responding to behavior supports or instruction, no consent or assessment plan is required. As such, behavioral screening or progress monitoring that gathers information by reviewing existing data or gathering input from classroom teachers and other educators, with no direct contact with the student, does not require parent/guardian consent or development of an assessment plan. The use of ODRs and the SRSS consider existing information and do not require administration of a screening instrument directly to a student; therefore they do not require consent. If it is suspected that the student may have a disability, an assessment plan should be developed.

Data Collection Following the Identification of Students

Once students have been identified as potentially needing Tier 2 supports, the RtI Specialist should gather additional data to assist the Tier 2 team in determining how to respond to the students’ need(s). Additional data may include: (a) a review of student records, classroom behavior data), (b) analysis of the environment(s) , (c) interviews with teacher(s), parents, other providers, and (d) review of other records.

Behavior

Sources for Identifying Students for Tier II Supports

Office Discipline Referrals (ODRs)

ODRs are a general indicator of externalized behavior. Each school should establish the decision making rule for the number of referrals a student must receive within a given time period before consideration for Tier 2. Generally, receiving two or more ODRs in a four week time period should trigger consideration for support in an elementary school. Three or more in a four week time period may be more appropriate for secondary schools. However, the decision making criteria should be established by the Tier 2 team so that the school may maximize available resources.

Student Risk Screening Scale (SRSS)

The SRSS is a universal screener designed to identify students with externalized behaviors. The screener is research based and has validated technical adequacy for use in K – 12 grade settings. Teachers are provided the screening tool to consider the needs of students in their class listed. Teachers then rate students in their class on seven items with a 4-point scale. The screening takes roughly 10 – 15 minutes. As such, it efficiently allows for identification of students at risk. The screening tool is then collected by the RtI Specialist and used by the Tier II team to identify potential candidates for Tier 2 support. The SRSS should be conducted during the first two weeks in October and again by the start of February. This allows for two opportunities to identify students who may not be identified through the other methods (request process or ODRs). Secondary schools may want to have teachers complete the SRSS as a grade level or department.

Requests for Assistance

Students presenting the need for support may also be identified through a Requests for Assistance. Parents, staff, and students may directly request service. Requests for assistance are often the best way to identify students with internalized behaviors (i.e. disengagement, withdrawal, depression, anxiety). Staff should be encouraged to utilize requests for assistance forms for students displaying internalized behaviors. In theory, students displaying more externalizing behaviors (i.e. tantrum, aggression, verbal and physical aggression) should be identified through the SRSS and ODRs. A sample staff request form is contained in the Appendix section of this guidebook. Though not directly a request for Tier 2 support, bullying complaints from students, parents, and staff may also be useful in identify students in need of service. Often, students who perceive they are being bullied need assistance in social skills in order to address difficult or challenging situations. This does not imply that bullying solutions should focus solely on victims of bullying. Bullying should be taken seriously and halted immediately. Older students may refer friends or themselves for support. Student requests for support should be taken seriously.

Other Sources

The purpose of these screening tools and/or strategies is to accurately identify students in need of Tier 2 supports prior to students failing and/or disengaging from instruction. Many schools have identified other sources of information that are useful in determining which students may be in need of additional support. Some of these sources include: health office logs, office logs, attendance, logs of students leaving the class to take breaks (e.g. teacher buddy systems) sudden declines in grades, classroom behavior systems (e.g. low level referrals, Class Dojo records, etc.).

Academics

The delivery to Tier 2 instruction is focused on skills that pose a barrier to the acceleration of student learning. Tier 2 instruction could be provided in the general education classroom by a supplemental instruction teacher or outside of the general education classroom by a supplemental instruction teacher or outside of the general education classroom. Any Tier 2 instruction provided to students must be integrated with Tier 1 content and performance expectations. Providers of Tier 2 instruction are encouraged to incorporate instructional language and materials of Tier 1.

Students identified as needing tier 2 supports will have Aeries pre-referral interventions inputted, progress monitoring during PLC's (at least 2 times per month), and an assessment checkpoint within 4-6 weeks of tier 2 intervention implementation. A second tier 2 conference will be held by SLT site leadership to identify any interventions that plc has not thought of, environmental change, do we need to move to tier three intervention (SST).

SECTION 6: IDENTIFYING STUDENTS FOR TIER 3

Behavior and Academics

If data shows lack of progress with Tier 2 interventions a Tier 2 conference will be held to identify whether additional Tier 2 interventions are needed or if higher level of support is warranted. Students referred to Tier 3 must have documented supports from Tier 1 and Tier 2 before being referred to Tier 3.

SECTION 7: PROGRESS MONITORING

Behavior & Academic Progress Monitoring Tools

Students identified as needing tier 2 supports will have individualized progress monitoring tools developed utilizing reference materials in forms section. Tools can include brief assessments, reliable, valid and evidence based assessments that are brief and can be used as repeated measures to capture student learning.

Brief assessments include but not limited to:

Progress monitoring is a systematic approach to gather academic and behavioral information using a variety of data collection methods. Methods used to monitor student progress should be determine before student begin an intervention. Commonly, Daily Progress Reports (DPRs) provide a flexible method of gathering and recording data on student progress. Office Discipline Referrals (ODRs) may also be used to monitor progress concurrently or as a stand-alone measure.

Consistent progress monitoring is essential to successful implementation of Tier 2 and 3 interventions as it allows the team to obtain data for decision making and refinement of systems. Data should be collected on all students receiving Tier 2 and 3 interventions. The team should use the data to evaluate progress and make decisions.

The focus for Tiers should always be a “problem solving approach” and not just trying to change forms or update binders so that that we move kids into the second tier for support/intervention. This should be an authentic focus on relationships, social-emotional learning, PD, classroom instruction, Professional Learning Community teams, class swaps, counselors, progress monitoring, using data regularly and often, use of existing campus supports.

SECTION 8: EVALUATING FIDELITY OF TIERED SYSTEMS OF INTERVENTION

Monitoring of a tiered system is essential to ensure fidelity of implementation and identify areas for refinement. When interventions are not applied with fidelity, student behavior generally remains unaffected. Failure to consider fidelity of implementation when making decisions regarding student progress may mislead Tier 2 and Tier 3 team decision making.

Likewise, national assessment measures help to ensure the effective implementation of Tiers 1, 2, and 3 as well as provide feedback for refinement and action planning. This section include the assessment measure used in the Woodland Joint Unified School District.

Behavior

The Tiered Fidelity Inventory (TFI) is considered to be a valid and reliable measure of the implementation of Tiers 1, 2 and 3.

Introduction and Purpose

The purpose of the SWPBIS Tiered Fidelity Inventory (TFI) is to provide a valid, reliable, and efficient measure of the extent to which school personnel are applying the core features of school-wide positive behavioral interventions and supports (SWPBIS). The TFI is divided into three sections (Tier I: Universal SWPBIS Features; Tier II: Targeted SWPBIS Features; and, Tier III: Intensive SWPBIS Features) that can be used separately or in combination to assess the extent to which core features are in place.

The TFI is based on the features and items of existing SWPBIS fidelity measures (e.g., SET, BoQ, TIC, SAS, BAT, MATT). The purpose of the TFI is to provide one efficient yet valid and reliable instrument that can be used over time to guide both implementation and sustained use of SWPBIS. The TFI may be used (a) for initial assessment to determine if a school is using (or needs) SWPBIS, (b) as a guide for implementation of Tier I, Tier II, and Tier III practices, (c) as an index of sustained SWPBIS implementation, or (d) as a metric for identifying schools for recognition within their state implementation efforts.

The TFI is completed by a school Systems Planning Team (typically 3-8 individuals including a building administrator and external coach or district coordinator), often with input from Tier I, II and/or III teams if these are independent groups. It is strongly recommended that the TFI be completed with an external SWPBIS coach as facilitator. Validity research on the TFI shows that school teams are more accurate when an external coach facilitates TFI completion.

The first time the TFI is used, we recommend that a team examine all three tiers. If the resulting action plan focuses only on one or two tiers, then progress monitoring (use of the TFI every 3-4 months) may only include those tiers addressed in the action plan. Note that the TFI may be used to assess only one or two of the tiers. In most cases it will be useful to have the end-of-the-year administration of the TFI include scoring for all three tiers.

Completion of the TFI produces scale and subscale scores indicating the extent to which Tier I, Tier II and Tier III core features are in place. As a general rule, a score of 80% for each tier is accepted as a level of implementation that will result in improved student outcomes, but research is currently underway to identify a specific criterion for each tier of the TFI.

The TFI is intended to guide both initial implementation and sustained use of SWPBIS. Each administration of the TFI results not only scale scores for Tier I, Tier II, and/or Tier III, but also information for developing an action plan that guides implementation.

The TFI may be completed using paper and pencil, or by accessing the forms on www.pbisapps.org. Any school working with a state PBIS coordinator may access the website, TFI content, and reports. The TFI may also be downloaded from www.pbis.org.

Cost

There is no cost to use the TFI or its online scoring and reporting features. The TFI is a product developed as part of the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Special Education Programs National Technical Assistance Center on Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports.

Intended Participants

The TFI is intended to be completed by members of a school's System Planning Team, with the active presence and guidance of an external SWPBIS coach.

Schedule of Administration

School teams are encouraged to self-assess SWPBIS implementation when they initially launch implementation of SWPBIS, and then every third or fourth meeting until they reach at least 80% fidelity across three consecutive administrations. Once fidelity on a tier is met, the team may choose to shift to annual TFI assessment for the purpose of evaluating sustained implementation. Note that schools new to SWPBIS may start by using only the Tier I section of the TFI, and as they improve their implementation of Tier I, they may add assessment of Tier II and/or Tier III features.

Preparation for Administration/Completion Time

School teams completing the Tier I scale should arrange a TFI Walkthrough (see Appendix A) before completing the TFI. We recommend that an external coach complete the TFI Walkthrough, although teams completing the Tier I scale more than once per year (i.e., for progress monitoring) may have a school staff member complete it.

The time to complete the TFI depends on (a) the experience that the team and coach have with the process, (b) the extent of preparation for TFI completion, and (c) the number of tiers assessed.

School teams new to the TFI should schedule 30 min for Tier I, 30 min for Tier II, and 30 min for Tier III. If team leaders have assembled relevant sources of information prior to the meeting, and, if the team and coach have already completed the TFI at least twice, the time required for implementation may be approximately 15 min for each tier.

Outcomes

Criteria for scoring each item of the TFI reflect degrees of implementation (0 = Not implemented, 1 = Partially implemented, 2 = Fully implemented) of Tier I: Universal SWPBIS Features, Tier II: Targeted SWPBIS Features, and Tier III: Intensive SWPBIS Features. A complete administration of the TFI produces three scale scores: Percentage of SWPBIS implementation for Tier I, Percentage of SWPBIS implementation for Tier II, and Percentage of SWPBIS implementation for Tier III, as well as subscale and item scores for each tier. The subscale and item reports are produced to guide coaching support and team action planning.

Glossary and Acronym Key

Aggregated Data: Individual data that are averaged at the school or district level (e.g., the percent of all students on check-in check-out meeting their daily point goals).

FTE (Full-Time Equivalent): Funding allocated to an individual for specific responsibilities (e.g., behavior consultant), with 1.0 = full time work. Allocated FTE may be an individual's position or official release time for tasks.

Life Domain: Each area of a student's life to consider when planning comprehensive support, such as educational/vocational, emotional/psychological, family, medical, residence, safety, and social.

Natural and Formal Supports: Natural supports are the relationships that occur in everyday life, usually involving relationships with family, friends, co-workers, neighbors, and acquaintances. Formal Supports usually involve some sort of payment and may include relationships with service providers such as teachers, other school staff, or community agency representatives.

Person Centered Planning: A team-based approach involving a range of strategies and activities designed to help assist students in planning their life and supports. The focus is on personal self-determination and enhancing independence.

Quality of Life: The extent to which physical, mental, social, and emotional functioning is consistent with personal preferences. It is determined by the student and family.

RENEW (Rehabilitation for Empowerment, Natural supports, Education, and Work): A wraparound-based process specifically designed for adolescents and young adults that emphasizes self-determination and student voice. The focus of RENEW is on high school completion, employment, post-secondary education and training, and community integration.

Targeted Interventions Reference Guide: A matrix used to indicate a school's Tier II interventions and indicate which student needs (e.g., function of problem behavior) they can support. It is included in Appendix B.

Tiered Fidelity Inventory (TFI): A validated SWPBIS fidelity of implementation measure that assesses all three tiers of support (this measure).

TFI Behavior Support Plan Worksheet: A sheet used to score the school's existing behavior support plans for the Tier III scale. It is not needed for the Tier I or II scales. It is included in Appendix C.

TFI Walkthrough Tool: An interview form used for the Tier I scale that includes questions for randomly selected staff and students. Completed by an external reviewer (for evaluation purposes) or a member of the school team (for progress monitoring purposes). It is not needed for the Tier II or III scales. It is included in Appendix A.

Walkthrough (informal): Any type of walkthrough used to assess quality of instruction (not the TFI Walkthrough Tool).

Wraparound: A person-centered process for developing and implementing individualized care plans for youth at-risk of emotional and behavioral disorders. Wraparound brings the student, family, school, agency staff members and informal supporters together as a team to develop a coordinated supports.

Scoring the SWPBIS Tiered Fidelity Inventory

The TFI generates scores reflecting the percentage of implementation for Tier I, Tier II, and Tier III core features. Scores are determined by calculating the percentage of possible points awarded for items in each tier (section). No weighting of items is included in this calculation (see below).

| Core Features | Items/ Points    | Points Award/Possible Points | Percentage of SWPBISImplementation |
|---------------|------------------|----------------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| Tier I        | 1-15 / 30 points | _____/ 30                        |                                        |
| Tier II       | 1-13 / 26 points | _____/ 26                        |                                        |
| Tier III      | 1-17 / 34 points | _____/ 34                        |                                        |

Across time, a school may monitor progress on implementation of SWPBIS by tier as depicted in the simulated data for a school in the figure below. This sample school used the TFI to assess Tier I at six different points in time, Tier II during the last four points in time, and Tier III during the last three points in time.

Tiered Fidelity Inventory Scores for One School Across Six Administrations of the Survey

The Inventory also provides a “by Item” report in the PBIS Assessment application, available at www.pbisassessment.org. This Item Report is the basis for Action Planning and is designed to facilitate the decision-making of a team as they identify (a) which items will be the focus of implementation efforts for the coming month, and (b) what the specific action(s) will be, who will lead in completing the action, and a date by which the action is expected to be completed. A sample action planning format is provided below.

Appendix A: SWPBIS Tiered Fidelity Inventory Walkthrough Tool

Overview

Purpose

This form is used as part of completing the SWPBIS Tiered Fidelity Inventory's Tier I subscale. Use this form to interview a random selection of staff (at least 10% of staff or at least 5 for smaller schools) and students (minimum of 10). This process should take no more than 15 minutes.

Who Should Complete the Tool

It is recommended that this tool is completed by an individual who is external to the school (e.g., external coach, coordinator, evaluator). This use allows for the Tiered Fidelity Inventory to serve as more of an external evaluation than self-assessment. Alternatively, an individual from the school team may complete this tool if the purpose of assessment is for progress monitoring between external evaluations.

Procedure

Randomly select staff and students as you walk through the school. Use this page as a reference for all other interview questions. Use the interview form to record staff and student responses.

Staff Interview Questions

Interview at least 10% of staff or at least 5 for smaller schools

1. What are the _____ (school rules, high 5's, 3 bee's)? (Define what the acronym means)
2. Have you taught the school rules/behavioral expectations this year?
3. Have you given out any _____ since _____?
(rewards for appropriate behavior) (2 months ago)

Student Interview Questions

Interview a minimum of 10 students

1. What are the _____ (school rules, high 5's, 3 bee's)? (Define what the acronym means)
2. Have you received a _____ since _____?
(reward for appropriate behavior) (2 months ago)

Appendix B: Targeted Interventions Reference Guide

A Reference Guide for Function-Based Support Options (Horner & Todd, 2002)

Purpose of Reference Guide

This Reference Guide is designed to be used as a map when discussing function based support needs for students. Use this reference guide when trying to determine intervention options for individual students.

Targeted Interventions Defined

Components of a targeted intervention include (a) increased structure & prompts, (b) instruction on skills, (c) increased regular feedback, and (d) the intervention is available to anyone at anytime.

Instructions

List the targeted interventions that are available in your school. Identify the possible functions that the intervention is designed to deliver by putting an X in the cell of the matrix.

Examples

- Check In-Check Out may offer predictable adult attention, organizational structure, and an option for accessing choices through the day.
- Social Skills Club participation may offer opportunities for instruction and practice on skills, choice, peer and adult attention and individualized support.
- Reading Buddies may offer access to peer attention, choice, option to avoid aversive situation, and individualized support.

Appendix C: TFI Tier III Support Plan Worksheet

(used for scoring features 3.4, 3.6, 3.8-3.13, and 3.15)

Directions: Select 3 current Tier III plans created in the last 12 months for students needing behavior support. If there are more than 3 plans available, randomly select 3. If there are no plans available, score a 0 for all TFI feature scores. If there are only 1 or 2 plans available, score a TFI feature as 2 only if all plans are scored as 2.

Strategies to Address Behaviors by Function (Ventura PBI handbook)

The attached documents come from the Positive Behavior Interventions (PBI) Handbook from the Ventura County SELPA. The handbook outlines procedures for Functional Behavior Assessment (FBA) and Behavior Intervention Plans (BIP) that align to the requirements of Federal Regulation Sections 300.324 (a)(2)(i) and 300.530 (f)(1).

The attached pages present strategies for addressing the following 20 different problem behaviors commonly seen in students:

|------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| Attendance                                                 | Out of Seat                                      |
| Biting                                                     | Physical Aggression                              |
| Difficulty Organizing and Caring for Materials             | Resists Transitions Between Activities or Places |
| Dishonesty                                                 | Runs Away/Elopement                              |
| Drops to the Ground                                        | Spitting                                         |
| Inappropriate Social Interactions with Peers and/or Adults | Stealing                                         |
| Inappropriate Personal Touching                            | Talking Out/Back/ Inappropriate Comments         |
| Minor Fine Motor Annoyances                                | Throwing Objects                                 |
| Non-Compliance to Teacher and Other Adult Requests         | Verbal Aggression                                |
| Difficulty Focusing On/Completing Task                     | Withdrawn                                        |

For each problem behavior there are suggested replacement behaviors aligned to the communicative function (Escape, Attention, Sensory, and Tangible) of the student. Also, there are strategies for teachers that may reduce the problem behavior.

The following pages is a resource for members of the Tier 2 team to utilize when addressing problem behaviors with students. In the event a student does not respond to Tier 2 interventions, or they display behavior that requires an individualized plan, the Tier 2 team may draw upon these resources to assist them in supporting the student and staff.

Although it is not recommended that a formal functional behavior assessment be completed for each student identified for Tier 2 supports, it is helpful to consider the function of the problem behavior(s) when placing a student in an intervention or designing an individual plan.

1. ATTENDANCE
 Definition: Poor attendance. "Ditching classes." School refusal.

Communicative Function: In the following boxes, check the Communicative Function, as determined on the Functional Behavior Assessment, and check the most appropriate description.

- Teach student to identify feelings (embarrassment, fear, etc.).
  - Give student specific expectations for assignment.
  - Develop behavior contract with student to include both specific rewards for compliant behaviors and consequences for non-compliance.
